SUMMARY
OF LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

From the Boston Gazette, July 29.

On Saturday, arrived at this port, the ship Sagadahock, Capt. Knapp, 46 days from Liverpool, bringing London dates to the 9th June. They however contain very little matter of interest, from any quarter: The British Parliament assembled on the 6th, and proceeded to business; the first motion of a public nature, was made by Sir Henry Parnell, who urged the adoption of a law, granting to the Catholics of Ireland, those privileges, which it was agreed to concede to them, two years since; finding, however, no chance of obtaining any support, at this moment, he withdrew his motion:—Marshal Blucher still remains dangerously indisposed:—Prince Talleyrand has returned to Paris, and entered upon the duties of his office, as Grand Chamberlain of France; it appears he has never forfeited the confidence and good will of the Bourbon family:—four of Bonaparte's vultures were executed at Mons, on the 28th May:—the confessions of Didier, one of the Grenoble insurgents, have caused the arrest of several persons, who have been suspected of treasonable designs: a person, arrested at Bayonne, was found to have about him incendiary proclamations:—a number of the regicides, who fled to Switzerland and Savoy, have been suspected of fresh revolutionary projects, and of having been the instigators of the insurrection at Grenoble; this suspicion is further strengthened from the circumstance of their daily arriving on the French frontiers, from Switzerland, inflammatory writings, tending to invite the people to throw off the yoke of the established government:—several bales of goods had been seized at Piedmont, containing incendiary publications, and seven officers stopped, who were travelling with passports, as merchants:—it is said, that England and Denmark do not agree, respecting the Duchy of Lauremburgh, and that the Danish government insists on the strict fulfilment of the treaty of Kiel:—affairs in Sweden look rather squally; the Prince Regent, (Bernadotte) is not popular, though possessed of great talents; and a strong party, opposed to his claims, are constantly in motion; under these circumstances, he has applied to Russia for protection, and received a promise of support; indeed, as Russia has acquired Finland, the protection of Sweden seems to be a matter of course, and perfectly in unison with other measures of the Russian cabinet, particularly that of protecting Poland, and extending its friendship to Moldavia and Walachi,—fresh disturbances are said to have broken out at Grenoble, and at midnight, on the 30th May the generale was beat, and all the positions of defence manned by the troops, guards and such of the inhabitants as had received arms; still, however, the trial of Didier had been delayed, and the court seemed puzzled how to proceed, as well as the government of the place how to act, or to regulate its internal policy; it in fact appears to be made up of the most confused and discordant materials, and not a measure seems to be adopted, that is calculated to make the administration respected;—some difficulties having existed between the French minister of war (Duke of Feltre) and the minister of police, (De Caze) a partial change of the ministry is daily expected:—General Angereau is not dead, as has been reported, but fast recovering from his late indisposition:—the report of a contagious disorder at Norway is contradicted. The King of Wirtemberg has issued an admonition to those of the immediate nobles of the empire, who have become his subjects, against appealing to foreign courts upon questions existing between him and themselves.

FROM LISBON.

"Letters received here from respectable houses in the Mediterranean, state, that Algiers has declared or rather made War upon the English: and that they have already captured two or 3 English vessels.

"A letter from the Portugues Consul at Corunna, dated 30th ult. to the Board of Trade of this city, mentions the arrival at Vigo, of a Spanish ship, which was plundered on the 12th, twelve leagues off Cadiz, by a Buenos Ayres schr. privateer, under American colours, (no donbt the Romp:) the commander of which obliged the Spanish captain to give a bond as a ransom for his ship, of $3000, and threatened to burn her, if he attempted to go into Cadiz."

FROM HALIFAX, July 16.

We have been favoured with a series of London papers, brought by the ships Rosary, to June 12.

It appears, that the treaty concluded by Lord Exmouth early in April, with the Dey of Algiers, has been broken by that Piratical Power, within a "little month" subsequent to its signature; and that not only British property has been seized to a considerable amount, but that British subjects have been captured and sent into slavery. We can only hope, that this last glaring instance of perfidy, will convince Government of the folly of entering into treaties of any kind with unprincipled Barbarians.

From the Boston Gazette, of Monday.

INFERNAL TRANSACTION—DEATH OF THE ELEPHANT.

Extract of a letter to the Editors, dated Alfred, York Co. 26th. July

"The day before yesterday, as the Elephant was passing through the town, he was waylaid by some diabolical miscreant, and shot dead with a brace of musket balls. It does not appear what could have induced this infuriated desperado to be guilty of so foul a deed. There is in every place, a certain description of persons, who may properly be termed "Children of Belial," they are "the lowest fellows of the basest sort." They may justly be compared to the reptiles that crawl upon the earth, and the vermin that infest us on every side, which can never be wholly extirpated. The perpetrator of the outrage, in question, doubtless instigated and aided by others of his cast must have belonged it would seem to the number of these wretches. No pains it is hoped will be spared to detect such a shameless villian, with all his aiders and abettors. On such an occasion a whole community is disgraced. The act would disparage a nation of savages. Ah! noble, generous, high minded, intelligent animal, justly classed among the wonderful works of God!—Thou hast past from the bank of the Ganges, to the shores of the new world, to gratify the just and laudable curiosity of mankind; to display the wonders of creation, and lead men to adore the maker and former of all things. And here thou hast come to fall by the ruffian hand of a miserable caitiff, who only lives to disgrace his species—to dishonour God, and be a scoundrel to his country.

"It would have melted the heart of the most obdurate to have beheld the agony and despair which the poor black, the elephant's conductor, manifested when he saw the majestic animal in the struggle of death, and heard him breath out the last moan of expiration. We recollect no occurrence for many years, which has excited such a degree of public sensibility. Mortified as we are, that such an act of villiany should have taken place among us, all that we can now do is to express a strong hope that the vile monster who has been guilty of it, may be speedily discovered, and the law may find some punishment adequate to the crime."

The seizure of Richard Meade, esq. of this city, by a royal order of the king of Spain, and his imprisonment in a dungeon at Cadiz is confirmed by letters just received via N. York. By what we have learned it is an act of wanton tyranny, perpetrated at the instigation of private malevolence; but with a lower degree of degradation of the government which authorized the shameless oppression.

It is often remaked that since the return of peace, we meet with much more frequent accounts of murders, suicides, and crimes than usual. We presume that this apparent increase of individual sufferings & private guilt may be accounted for, without supposing a general increase of human depravity. The conductors of Newspapers are bound to indulge as far as possible, public curiosity, and since they are not furnished with the materials in the record of national crimes and calamities, they are obliged to diversify their pages with such distressing details as they can gather from private life. Thus a murder takes the place of a battle, a robbery of the ravaging of a province or kingdom, a suicide of a political revolution; and the nearer the horrid circumstances attendant on the former class of events, can be made to excite the interests commanded by the latter, the less hazard is run by the unfortunate chronicler, of being reproached with a neglect of duty, This explanation seems due both to the character of our times and to the reputation of him who undertakes to record its annals.—Bos. D. Adv.

Accounts from Amsterdam to May 11. state that there were in that city more than 500 Swiss emigrants, and about 400 Wirtembergers, on their way to America.

From the Boston Evening Gazette.

THE LADIES' FRIEND.

"A virtuous woman is more precious than rubies."

Next to the performance of the great duties of religion, let me earnestly entreat you my fair readers, to acquirie the government of your temper. Many there are, who leave their humility in the closet, and their devotion at church—who are constant in the observance of all the solemn ordinances of christianity, but forget that golden rule of good will to all, without which, all prayers and forms, and ceremonies, are but as sounding brass, or a tinckling cymbal. They would not neglect, on Sunday, to hear the word of God—but they suffer their tempers, all the rest of the week, to run counter to the mild and peaceful spirit of the gospel; and sometimes it is to be feared, they return from the sacred altar of the Lord, to exercise a harsh dominion over their unfortunate dependants at home. But you my friends be not like them. If you would be happy yourself, strive to make all about you, happy. It is the law of your nature, and the equity of Heaven: You cannot destroy the peace of others, without wounding your own.

Lay your imaginations under the severest discipline. Young people, especially of your sex, are willing victims of the illusions of fancy. You enter upon life as an enchanted country. The world in your eyes, has no caprice—fortune no vissitude—friendship is without insincerity—attachment without bitterness, and marriage is happiness without alloy. But trust not these smiling delusions. Experience will not realise them. Look through them with the eyes of reason, and see things as they are. The world at best, is but a checkered scene of good and evil. Such vain expectations will destroy our relish for rational pleasures, and leave you neither resolution to perform the duties of your station, nor fortitude to encounter the unavoidable calamities of life.

In the choice of books, consult the wisdom and experience of some tried friend, on whose judgment you can safely rely.—This is a matter of great importance. The enemies of virtue, are ever on the alert.—In the tale of fancy, in the poet's song, in the light pages of a novel, in the columns of a newspaper, and, shame on the unworthy prostitution of talents! even in the sober and dignified records of history you will find the subtle poison of irreligion. Every snare is spread, and every disguise assumed, to complete the ruin of innocence. Beware then, how you read; and guard your little library from the intrusion of the dangerous and seductive volumes, with as much care as you would guard your heart from impure and wicked thoughts.

Without delicacy, no woman can be lovely. It is the sacred fence of female honor, and is never broken down without fatal consequences. Delicacy extends to every thing where woman is concerned. Conversation, books, pictures, attitude, gesture, should all be under its salutary restraints. If a girl ever loses it, "farewell, a long farewell, to all" her "greatness!" "If the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?" How unfit are many parents to educate a daughter! What injudicious plesantries do they sometimes use, even in their presence! A young girl should hear she should see nothing, that can call forth a blush or even stain the purity of her mind. There is a vice with which your sex is generally reproached.—The darts of slander, I grieve to say it, are thrown, too often, by the hand of a female. But, I trust, your example will repel the charge, and prove, once more that indiscriminate censure is never just. Where you can praise justly, praise freely; where you find nothing to approve, be silent. The female voice is never less pleasing, than when raised to enumerate the faults of others; never more melodious, than when exerted to vindicate the honour, or palliate the failings of an absent friend.

Pittsburgh, 21 August, 1819.

From the above report it appears that the Society has been enabled to give assistance to 125 suffering families or individuals. And the managers are happy in the reflection, that scarcely a single instance has occurred, in which their funds have been improperly or unprofitably applied.

They also embrace the present opportunity of returning the thanks of the Society to the different Churches in the City, for the very liberal collection taken up in aid of its funds.

NATIONAL BANK.

We have not the particulars to ascertain exactly, how much has been subscribed to the new National Bank; but it is presumed, that about 28,000,000 dollars will be found to have been underwritten. In Baltimore, upwards of 4,000,000 were taken, and it is thought the subscriptions at Philadelphia have exceeded 6,000,000.

The amount of revenue to the British government from Newspaper stamps in England, for the year ending Jan. 5, 1816, was 363,414l. 3s 4d.—In Scotland 20,281l. 12s. 10d. The amount paid by the London Courier alone was 31,155l 13s. 3d. besides the duty paid on advertisements.

MR. SCULL,

Through the medium of your Gazette, I would enquire, whether the Federalists intend to nominate Candidates for the approaching General Election; or whether they will shrink from the duty they owe to their country, and suffer its concerns to remain in the hands of democracy.

AN ELECTOR.

PLEASING RECOLLECTIONS.

It must be apparent to every person in the least acquainted with the history of the Newgate saint, (Cobbett,) that his pen has always been at the service of the highest bidder, and that he invariably asserts, without the least regard to veracity, whatever will best subserve his own purposes.

As this wretch has become so great a favourite with the Administration and its adherents, and his vulgar and virulent abuse of Federalists, is eagerly seized upon by some democratic editors, it may be worth the trouble to revert to and notice his former publications respecting them, when in this country.

Extract of William Cobbett's Will, dated the 15th April, 1797.

"Imprimis.—I leave my body to Mr. Michael Leib, a member of the legislature of Pennsylvania, to be by him dissected, (if he knows how to do it) in presence of the Rump of the Democratic Society. In it they will find a heart that held them in abhorrence, that never palpitated at their threats, and that to its last beat, bade them defiance. But my chief motive for making this bequest is, that my spirit may look down with contempt, on their Cannibal-like triumph over a breathless corpse.

"Item.—As I make no doubt that the abovesaid Dr. Leib (and some other doctors that I could mention, would like very well to skin me; I request that they, or one of them, may do it, and that the said Leib's father may tan my skin; after which, I desire my executors to have eight copies of my work complete bound in it, one copy to be presented to the five Sultans of France; one to each of their Divans; one to the Governor of Pennsylvania; to Citizens Madison, Giles, and Gallatin, one each; and the remaining one to the Democratic Society of Philadelphia, to be carefully preserved among their archives.

"Item.—To the Republican Britons, who have fled from the hands of justice in their own country, and who are a scandal, a nuisance, and a disgrace to this, I bequeath hunger and nakedness, scorn and reproach; and I do hereby positively enjoin on my executors to contribute five hundred dollars towards the erection of gallowses and gibbets, for the accommodation of the said imported patriots, when the legislators of this unhappy state shall have the wisdom to countenance such useful establishments."

If disposed to multiply instances of the same kind, volumes might easily be collected. It may not be amiss to add the following.

From Wm. Cobbett to the Democrats.

A gentleman mentioning yesterday, that he had lost his pocket book' it was suggested that he might have had his pocket picked; "that's impossible," replied he, "for I am certain I have not been in company with a democrat."

[Cobbett's Gazette, Nov. 17, 1797.

The democrats are absolutely worse than the English gypsies, for they are never supposed to steal more than the amount of what they pay. If I kept a Tavern for the entertainment of these sans-culottes, I would, as they do in the mob houses in London, have the knives and forks chained down to the tables; and as to silver spoons, it should do their eyes good when they saw them.

Cobbett, Dec. 5, 1797.

Rapidity of Settlement.

In the fall of 1813, the town of VEVAY, in Indiana Territory, was laid out: in 1814, it was still a Forest; in 1816, it contains 75 handsome dwelling-houses, besides shops, &c. a brick court house, jail and school-houses, 8 stores, 3 tanners, 31 mechanics, 2 lawyers, 2 physicians, a carding machine, a public library, numerous wine-presses and vine-yards, several mills, receives a mail three times a week, and supports a neat weekly newspaper; a brick market-house and meeting-house are building. It is settled chiefly by Swiss, one of whom calculates on making the present year 1000 gallons of excellent wine, at $2 per gallon.

EXTRACT.

Mutability of Human Greatness.

In the year 1504, only 312 years ago, the master of the ceremonies of Pope Julius II. ranked the powers of Europe as follows:

1 Germany	13 Bohemia
2 Rome	14 Poland
3 France	15 Denmark
4 Spain	16 Venitian Repub'k
5 Arragon	17 Brittany
6 Portugal	18 Burgundy
7 England	19 Bavaria
8 Sicily	20 Brandenburgh
9 Scotland	21 Saxony
10 Hungary	22 Austria
11 Navarre	23 Savoy
12 Cyprus	24 Florence

How melancholy is the wreck of nations since this memorable period! Where, now, is proud imperial Rome, whose frown spread terror and dismay throughout the civilized world? Alas the sun of her glory has been long since shorn of its beams—and she, the once-famed mistress of the universe, hardly a speck in the scale of nations! The same question may be asked with regard to a majority of the kingdoms and principalites, which at that period shone with splendor in the political constellation; snd which have since bid "farewell, a long farewell!" to all their greatness.

Note—Neither Russia nor Prussia, appear upon the list—they were of too little importance to sssume a rank among the civilized nations.

Cobbett's Weekly Register, written in London and published in New-York, is thirteen dollars per annum, and notwithstanding, it is said, is liberally supported by republican Americans! An editor remarks, we could purchase as much abuse of England, of home manufacture, at a much cheaper rate. However, the contents of the Register are not wholly foreign, in a recent number, Americans are cautioned against the danger, &c. of styling WASHINGTON the father or founder of the liberty of his country!

The crops of wheat in Virginia are excellent; so that if the north fail, the south will afford a supply.

The munificence of congress to the widow of Alexander Hamilton, is publickly acknowledged and we record the fact with pleasure, as one more proof that Republics are not always ungrateful. The amount received by Mrs. Hamilton, as commutation for the General's half pay, which he relinquished from motives honorable to himself and to human nature, exceeds TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS. Thus it is, that the grave, whilst it receives the remains of an illustrious man, cools the ardour of prejudice against his memory, and disposes his surviving cotemporaries to do justice to his virtues and his fame.—Alb. Reg.

ANN CARSON.

On Tuesday last this woman was again before Judge Carson, in this borough, by virtue of a writ of habeas Corpus, to confront her accusers of a plot against the governor, as has heretofore been stated. After considerable argument between her council and the council for the commonwealth, the Governor appeared in Court and read several extracts of letters from Mr. John Binns of Philadelphia, in which were stated his knowledge of a hellish plot intended against his excellency or some of his family, by the said Ann, and her accomplices, with a view to extort a pardon for Richard Smith. The governor declaring himself fearful that the said attempt might be realised if the prisoner's enlargement was permitted his honor, the judge, demanded her recognizance in $ 5000, a sum too high for her to procure in this place; she was of course on motion of the prosecuting attorney, remanded to prison. where, if not bailed, she will hold her residence till next September term.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

ON the 8th day of June last, Lieut. JOHN M. SMITH hired a horse of me to ride, as he stated, to Lawrenceburgh, (I.) and was to return him in about 10 days. About five weeks afterwards, I received a letter from him dated Winchester, Ky. July 9th, stating that he was sorry to inform me that the day before, my horse had died of the botts. One day previous to my receiving this letter, becoming uneasy, I had despatched a person in pursuit of him, who followed him to Lexington, Ky. thence to Winchester, which he had just left with my horse, stating that he was going to Newport, Ky.

I will give a reward of Twenty Dollars for the Horse and Swindler, or Ten Dollars for either of them. The Horse was a dun coloured sorrel, about 15 hands high, 6 or 7 years old, a natural trotter. The saddle was a common plain one, the bridle was of the first rate, with fly straps. Said Smith is about 5 feet 10 inches high, calls himself a third Lieutenant in the Ordnance Department, says he was educated at the Military School at West Point. No information having been received of him since he left Winchester, and his having written to me that my Horse was dead, when he was not, justifies the suspicion that he does not intend returning

Public Sale of LAND, ON THE RIVER OHIO.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the Honorable the Supreme Court of the United States, will be sold by public auction, to the highest bidder, at Mason County Court House, (Point Pleasant) Virginia, on the 3d Tuesday in October next, a Tract of Land in the said county, known by the name of lying on the Ohio River, from 18 to 24 miles above the mouth of the Great Kenhawa; containing 600 acres.

"Graham's Station,"

This tract is very handsomely situated on a bend of the river, for nearly 6 miles bounded by it, and backwards by two strait lines, being of a triangular form.

Persons of respectability acquainted with it, describe the bottom or low ground on the river, as "from three quarters of a mile to a mile in width, and not inferior in quality to the general average of bottom lands on the Ohio: and that the hill land is well calculated for small grain and good upland farms, although about a third of it does not admit of easy cultivation."

On this land 9 farms, with log houses there on have been laid out, and several hundred acres cleared and under fence. There is a public ferry established from it across the Ohio.—On a large creek is a good site for water works, where formerly was erected a Grist and Saw Mill, now decayed.

A number of respectable and industrious German families were formerly settled on this tract, some of them are probably still there, others in the neighbourhood. These persons are desirous of a speedy settlement thereof, not only with a view to the general improvement of the country, but from the laudable motives of obtaining additional society, and aid towards the support of a Schoolmaster and Preacher.

It is proposed to divide the tract into six lots of 1000 acres each, in order to accommodate purchasers. The terms of payment will be made known on the day of sale. The title has been adjudged by the Supreme Court to be unexceptionable, and deeds will be made to the purchasers, with general warranty free from all incumbrances.

It is wished that persons intending to purchase will, by themselves or agents, examine the land and form their own judgements as to its soil, improvements, situation and local advantages.

Mr. Gideon Hinkle, residing on the adjoining tract, will shew it, or point out a proper person for that purpose, with whom a plat will be lodged.

WILLIAM HAMILTON.

Pittsburgh, April 27, 1816.

Messrs. Bosler & Co.

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT and FAMILY MEDICINE STORE, New-York,

A FRESH SUPPLY OF THE FOLLOWING

GENUINE MEDICINES.

Dr HAMILTON'S

Grand Restorative.

Prepared (only) by H. LEE, No. 56, Maiden Lane, New-York.

The proprietor of HAMILTON'S RESTORATIVE DROPS confidently recommends it as an invaluable medicine, for the speedy relief and cure of permanent

Nervous Disorders	Violent Cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of Spirits	Indigestion
Loss of Appetite	Melancholy
Impurity of Blood	Gout in the stomach
Hysterical Affections	Pains in the Limbs
Inward Weaknesses	Relaxations, &c

This Medicine is perfectly different in its qualities and operation from those hot and irritating drugs so frequently proposed for similar purposes, which only recommend themselves by the dangerous rapidity of their effects—and which, acting as a temporary, but violent stimulus on the nervous system, infallibly produces greater evils than those which they are intended to remove.

The principal operation of this medicine is in the stomach, restoring the digestive power, and sending from that organ new health and vigor into every part of the system; it enriches and purifies the blood without stimulating, too violently, the nervous system; strengthens the secretory vessels and general habits, brings back the muscular fibres to their natural and healthy tone, and restores that nutrition which immoderate evacuations have destroyed, and whose loss had thrown the whole frame into languor and debility.

The restorative is absolutely above all commendation in removing those weaknesses and infirmities with which many females are afflicted, the consequences of difficult and painful labours, or of injudicious treatment therein.

In cases of extremity, where the long prevalence and obstinacy of disease have brought on a general impoverishment of the system, excessive debility of the whole frame, and a wasting of the flesh, which no nourishment or cordial could repair.

The Grand Restorative is prepared in Pills, as well as in fluid form, which assists considerably in producing a gradual and lasting effect.

HAMILTON'S Worm Destroying Lozenges.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions of foulness in the stomach and bowels.

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills,

Celebrated for the mildness of their operation, &c. for being the best known remedy for cleansing the stomach and bowels.

HAMILTON'S

ESSENCE & EXTRACT OF MUSTARD.

A safe and effectual remedy for Rheumatisms, Gout, Palsy, Sprains and Bruises, White Swellings, old Strains and Relaxations, Numbness and Weaknesses of the Neck, Pains of the Side, Headache, Swelled Faces, Frozen Limbs, and every similar complaint. It prevents Chilblains or Chopped Hands, and the ill effects of getting wet or damp in the feet.

THE GENUINE PERSIAN LOTION,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, in preventing and removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

THE RESTORATIVE POWDER,

For the Teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts & strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which, suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.

Celebrated for the cure of colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, and approaching consumptions, and a certain remedy for the whooping cough.

HAHN'S GENUINE EYE WATER.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or accident.

TOOTH ACHE DROPS.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

ITCH CURED.

LEE'S OINTMENT FOR THE ITCH.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

LEE'S

INFALLIBLE

AGUE & FEVER DROPS.

For the cure of Agues, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers.

HAHN'S

True & Genuine German Corn Plaister.

NOTE. The above GENUINE MEDICINES are prepared (only) by H. LEE, (widow of Richard Lee, deceased) No. 56, Maiden Lane, N. York, and

SOLD, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL BY

BOSLER & CO.

☞ Druggists and Country Storekeepers, will be treated with on liberal terms.

CURE FOR COUGHS, COLDS, &c.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY for Colds, obstinate Coughs, Asthmas, Sore Throats, and approaching Consumptions, and most disordes of the breast and lungs.

A SINGLE TRIAL

Will prove, that it restores the determination of the blood to the surface of the body, and brings on the common healthful perspiration; that it dislodges and evacuates the tough viscid phlegm or mucus, strengthens the weakened vessels of the lungs, sheathes the acrimonious humor which irritates them, and finally discharges it. Thus striking at the root of the disorder, the symptoms are of course effectually and permanently conquered; the reverse of common medicines, which weaken the constitution and give strength to the disorder, for the sake of moderating for the present some of its painful effects.

To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is so perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small, that no difficulty arises in taking it.

TO H. LEE.

Being desirous to make public, for the good of others, the excellent quality of HAMILTON'S ELIXIR, prepared by the late Mr. Lee, I have sent you the following account of the benefit I have received from it, which I hope will induce others to give it a trial. In consequence of a bruise on the breast received from a fall, my health grew bad, my breathing became very difficult, and frequently I have had to rise up in my bed, with all the horrors of immediate suffocaton. Add to these a constant pain in my breast, and a cough, a great loss of strength and flesh, and you may conceive that my symptoms evidently indicated an approaching consumption. The advise of a most eminent physician was resorted to, and afterwards a second was called in, but without giving me any relief. Another physician who knew me and the circumstances of my case, advised me to give Hamilton's Elixir a trial, saying, he had used it in his practice, and always found it to do much good. A bottle was procured from Mr. Birch's, and I found relief before I had taken half of it. I continued to use it, and was soon strong enough to attend to business. On taking cold some of my former symptoms return, but are always removed by a dose or two of the Elixir.

A Private Female Academy,

MRS. HOWARD, late from Baltimore, has the honour of announcing to parents and guardians her intention of opening an ACADEMY in this city for the instruction of Young Ladies, on Monday the 29th inst where will be taught every branch of an useful and ornamental education.

Mrs. HOWARD's long experience as a preceptress in some of the most enlightened and polished societies of America, renders it unnecessary that she should advance with assertions of her competency for such an undertaking.

Those who may disposed to favour the Academy with their support, may rest assured that she will do every thing in her power to form the minds and manners of her pupils to all that is most elegant and graceful.

An experienced teacher has been engaged at considerable expense, to attend this institution, for the purpose of giving lessons in penmanship and arithmetick.

The Academy will be established in that spacious and very agreeable room over Mr. Kreigo's store in Market street, and next door to the Pittsburgh Bank.

☞ Applications to be made at Mrs. Ripley's, corner of Front and Ferry streets.
